Message from
PASTOR MARK

Tis the season to be jolly! There is so much joy in the season of Christmas. Giving and receiving gifts in many ways can become a primary focus of our Christmas experiences. Both of these acts produce grateful and happy hearts. We give gifts because we love blessing others and showing our love to them. When we unwrap our gifts, we value and treasure them because of the thoughtfulness of a friend or loved one. Although no matter how many gifts you open or receive, it's never enough. There will always be an unfulfilled feeling and an emptiness left that those gifts can't provide. Gifts can bring temporary joy, but it's fleeting.

Remember to take time to unwrap the story of Jesus Christ. There is no story during Christmas that is more miraculous and magical. It's a story that is worth telling and must be the central experience of our Christmas. Christ's coming brings supernatural joy through His Holy Spirit and it is more than enough. Through Him there is joy and when we take time to remember the Lord, it brings Him joy. The joy of the Lord is your strength.
